People, places and things from around the state, including a brief history of the Copper Queen Mine in Bisbee; Western patch-nosed snakes; and an Italian restaurant in Gila Bend that's so good, even Prince Harry says it serves "the best pizza in the world."

16 THE BIG PICTURES: SANTA CATALINA MOUNTAINS

A Portfolio Edited by Jeff Kida

28 MY LADY OF THE DESERT

An Essay by Kelly Vaughn

32 IDENTIFYING FLYING OBJECTS

The facility is modest — a small control room in the upper elevations of the Santa Catalina Mountains — but the research being done by the Catalina Sky Survey is out of this world. Literally. Its mission is to discover asteroids and comets that pass within 30 million miles of Earth's orbit. And since its start nearly 20 years ago, the NASA-funded lab has identified almost half of the 15,000 known near-Earth objects.

38 PITCH A TENT & HIT THE TRAIL

Lewis and Clark, Simon and Garfunkel, peanut butter and chocolate ... there's a long list of great combinations. In the summer in the Santa Catalina Mountains, the best combo might be hiking and camping.

52 SCENIC DRIVE

Cape Royal Road: Cape Royal offers one of the best overlooks in Grand Canyon National Park. It's impressive, and so is the narrow, winding road that takes you there.

54 HIKE OF THE MONTH

Baldy Crossover Trail: Although it's overshadowed by its celebrated neighbors, the Mount Baldy Crossover Trail is the epitome of a gorgeous walk in the woods.
